

"The Sunken Olive Gardens" Will Be The Biggest Show Ever Given In Narberth

NOTHING THE EQUAL OF THIS ORIGINAL THREE-ACT MUSICAL COMEDY EVER SEEN IN OUR TOWN—NEXT THURSDAY AND FRIDAY NIGHTS—TWENTY-ONE TENNIS MEMBERS IN CAST—THIRTEEN MUSICAL NUMBERS AND "SOME" CHORUS GIRLS!

There is every reason to believe that next Thursday and Friday evenings, March 3 and 4, will be the two biggest entertainment nights in the history of Narberth.

On these two evenings will be produced at Elm Hall, and for the first time on any stage, "The Sunken Olive Gardens," a new and original three-act musical comedy.

Thursday will be the opening night and the performance will be repeated on Friday evening.

This new musical comedy has been written by James F. Donnelly, a member of the Narberth Tennis Association, who has directed all rehearsals and who will be in full charge of both performances. The show itself will be produced by members of the Tennis Association.

There are twenty-one members in the cast, three scenes in the show and thirteen musical numbers. The "Time" of the "Sunken Olive Gardens" is the "present," and the "Place" is Narberth.

Here's a Hint at the Plot.

Did you ever hear of Narberth's famous "Sunken Olive Gardens"? Well, they exist all right, and there is a wonderful story connected with them. Moreover, a thrilling romance is in-involved and there are flashes of real melodrama and several of the most touching and affecting love scenes ever seen on any stage. And hist!—there is also a diabolical conspiracy in the air and no end of scheming!

But just wait until "Jack Sparks," the hero of "The Sunken Olive Gardens," gets on the job! "Bruce K. Shalleross" is some "promoter," all right, all right, and with his nefarious scheme and the assistance of his rather questionable side partner, "Professor George Darology," it certainly looks for a time as though the kindly and generous "Mr. Everett" and some of his millions were going to get the worst of it.

But, friends, you overlook the fact that "Mr. Everett" has a daughter and that "Jack Sparks" has his eye on that daughter and—

But there, there, we can't give the entire story away, and besides we haven't said anything about "Solly Wernberger," the proprietor of the famous "All Inn," or "Bob Bullock," the traveling salesman with his irrepressible "hoohoo receipts," or the slyly adventurous "Pauline McCauley."

And as for the chorus girls and the

Alumni Association Reorganizing

SUGGESTIONS OF MEMBERS INVITED ON IMPORTANT CHANGES.

The Narberth High School Alumni Association was organized in May, 1915, with the co-operation of Mr. Melchior, for the purpose, as stated in the constitution, of "rendering to their school such services as the opportunities of the coming years may enable them to perform."

When organized, the Association included thirty-one graduate members. This number has now increased to nearly a hundred. With the increase in membership, however, the interest seemed to die out of the Association. The organization became more and more confused until, in the annual meeting last June, matters reached a head.

It was decided that it was about time the Alumni Association woke up and took its logical place in school affairs. The new president, Margaret Eyre, gave a short talk, of which "pep" was the keynote, and everything was set for a general waking-up.

However, when the Executive Board met to get things started, they found that we had outgrown our by-laws, that we had no correct list of members, and that our treasurer had resigned.

At the Christmas meeting the Executive Board was empowered to bring things up to date. Three meetings have already been held, in which much has been accomplished in the drawing up of the new by-laws and in getting the records in shape.

Copies of the new by-laws are in the possession of the president, Margaret Eyre, and of the secretary, Philip Livingston. Members interested in the rejuvenating of the Association are invited to consult with either of the

The above Fourteenth Annual Statement of the Narberth Building and Loan Association shows its stockholders and friends that we have an Association that will compare favorably with any in Philadelphia or along the Main Line.

We have five hundred and fifty-one stockholders and their average holding is fourteen shares, making 7,801 shares in force, and the earnings for this last year show 8.3 per cent.

These are days of large returns on investments. High-class securities which in normal times yield 4 per cent. are now yielding 6 per cent., and those with an element of risk, which returned 6 per cent. to 7 per cent. in pre-war days now show 8 per cent. to 10 per cent.

But to invest in mortgages, stocks or bonds you must have hard cash available in some quantity. The salaried man can get in the investing class only by constantly and persistently setting aside whatever he can spare until he accumulates a sum large enough to purchase an investment security.

Most of you know that we have right here in Narberth an organization which enables anyone to become an investor to any degree commensurate with his means.

Here is a conservatively-managed association, with assets of nearly half a million, which, in its fourteen years of existence, has never lost a dollar on any of its investments and is therefore able to show a rate of profit to its stockholders that compares favorably with the present high returns on securities of more or less uncertain future.

The thing that especially impresses all visitors to this country is the apparent waste of money and material, which in the aggregate is appalling. Their first impression is that we are a thrifty people, but inquiry shows that, while there is a class who spend all they make or receive, there is also another class who save part of their income for the proverbial rainy day. One of the functions of the Narberth Building and Loan Association is to induce and encourage those of the spending class to become members of the saving class.

In addition to the usual one dollar per month shares, which it has always issued, the Narberth Building and Loan Association proposes an innovation in the issue of Short Term shares, on

Narberth Choral Society

FIRST REHEARSAL OF NARBERTH CHORAL SOCIETY SO SUCCESSFUL AS TO GUARANTEE FUTURE SUCCESS OF THE CHORAL.

You "oughta been" at our first rehearsal! It was surely peppy! We finished up some left-over business, electing the following six directors, who, together with the officers of the organization, compose the Board of Directors: Mr. Rudolph, Mr. Hillegas, Mrs. Downes, Mrs. Hoffman, Mr. Justice, and Mr. Murphy.

The President, Mr. Hayward, announced the following committees:

Active Membership Committee—Mrs. Hoffman, chairman pro tem.; Mrs. Staples, Mr. Mitchell, Mrs. Trowbridge, and Mr. McGarity.

Associate Membership Committee—Mr. Irving Trotter, chairman pro tem.; Mr. H. Keim, Mr. Justice, Mr. Rose, Mr. Whitman, Mr. Edgar, Mrs. Foote, Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Downes, Mrs. Denman, Mrs. Bradley, Miss Prescott.

Publicity Committee—Mrs. Bradley, chairman, pro tem.; Mr. E. C. Smith, Mr. Reeves, Miss Prescott, Mr. Heck.

Housing Committee—Mr. Justice and Mr. Cuthbert.

Music Committee—Miss Prescott, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Cuthbert.

Through an oversight last week on the part of the printer, the name of Mr. C. P. Cook was omitted from the list of Honorary Vice-Presidents. We feel indeed fortunate to have the interest and co-operation of Mr. Cook.

We then adjourned our business meeting and started real work and no fooling. We're off! On our first spring concert. And you certainly are going

St. Patrick's Novelty Dance, March 18th

The next dance to be held under the auspices of the American Legion Post will be on Friday, March 18th, at 8.45 P. M. The committee has made some very interesting plans for the evening.

A Rare Treat if You Like to Laugh.

Don't Make the Same Mistake.

All in all, this musical comedy, "The Sunken Olive Gardens," is going to be a rare treat, and if you have any capacity whatsoever for enjoying a good laugh, you will regret it if you don't see one of next week's two performances.

Take our advice and get your tickets immediately. They may be had from any member of the Tennis Association, curtain goes up promptly at 8.15 each night.

Last year when the Tennis Association gave its annual show a number of people waited to get their tickets at the door, and when they got there quite a number were disappointed because the place was full and they couldn't get in. The Tennis Association doesn't want anyone to be disappointed next week, and that is why everyone is urged to get their tickets in advance.

Those who delay getting tickets until they get to Elm Hall on either Thursday or Friday night are likely to be disappointed, for only those who have tickets will be seated before 8.05. The

The suggestion is also made that folks bring their opera glasses. If you sit anywhere near the rear of the hall you'll need your glasses to appreciate fully some of the rare and unusual effects to be seen on the stage.

Remember, there will be two performances of "The Sunken Olive Gardens," the new and original three-act musical comedy, next Thursday and Friday evenings, March 3 and 4, in Elm Hall, each performance beginning at 8.15 sharp. Don't delay getting your tickets.

IN HANDS OF RECEIVER.

The Main Line Community Kitchen, Inc., located at Wynnewood, is in financial trouble and the Montgomery County Court has appointed Daniel Yeakle Miller, Esq., temporary receiver of the corporation, with power to settle up the affairs of the corporation. A hearing will be held in Court Room No. 1 on Monday morning, March 7, at 10 o'clock, to hear application to make the receivership permanent.

REPORT IS NOT CORRECT.

The report published in a number of city newspapers to the effect that the Suburban Association of the Main Line was interested in the establishment of a dental clinic is not correct. The Suburban Association has no such plan in view.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.
As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

THE RECENT DANCE.

It was indeed gratifying to the committee to see so many new faces at the dance held on Friday evening, February 18th.

The committee has worked hard to make these dances a success, and hope that our friends will feel perfectly free to come and enjoy the evenings with us.

1921 DUES.

Unless the 1921 dues are paid before March 1st, the Legion Weekly will be discontinued to the individual unpaid subscriber.

Ardmore Y.M.C.A. News

The first week of March may well be named "Comradeship Week" at the Y. M. C. A. Two events will be put on, both of which will foster the idea of comradeship and mutual understanding of each other between parents and children. While we believe in promoting community activities on the basis of the family as a whole, we are dividing the events this year as a change, and because of limited accommodations. The two events will be "Mother and Daughter Night" on Tuesday evening, March 1st, and "Father and Son Night" on Saturday evening, March 5th. On these nights the events in each case will be a dinner, followed by an entertainment, social and recreational games. On Tuesday the mothers and girls will chat and play together, while the men and boys will all be boys together on Saturday night.

We take pleasure in informing the women of the Main Line who may be interested that arrangements have been completed whereby Madam Thasin, our instructor in millinery and dressmaking, whose work has proved so popular in our community, will conduct classes at the Saturday Club House at Wayne on Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. With the co-operation of the Saturday Club of Wayne, this work will begin Thursday, March 3, and continue for 12 weeks. With a class at Narberth Thursday morning, one at Wayne on Thursday afternoon, and three at Ardmore, meeting Thursday evening, Friday afternoon and Friday evening, the women of the Main Line will certainly have an exceptional opportunity to array themselves in attractive hats and gowns.

Musicale

Dr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Babb, of 157 Cricket avenue, Ardmore, gave a musicale for young people at their home Saturday evening, February 19th, when a hundred friends, mostly children, listened enthusiastically to the playing of a number of violinists, pupils of Mrs. Babb.

Little Horace Fry, seven-year-old son of Professor Fry, of the University of Pennsylvania, aroused a storm of applause by playing with his teacher three little duets. Others who played were Caroline and Louise Gucker, who attend the open air school at Bryn Mawr; Anne Barclay and Louise Kront, of Narberth; Harriet Preble, of Rosemont, and Maris Assante, of Philadelphia. Anne Barclay played again with her teacher last Sunday afternoon at a concert given in the auditorium of the Settlement Music School, where Mrs. Babb is a member of the faculty.

COTTAGE PRAYER MEETINGS.

In preparation for the evangelistic services to be held during the two weeks preceding Easter at the Narberth Presbyterian Church, it has been arranged to hold cottage prayer meetings weekly, beginning next week. Meetings will be held on both the north and south side of Narberth and a cordial welcome will be extended to all.

On next Thursday evening, March 3rd, the cottage prayer meetings will be held at the following homes:

On the north side—Mr. A. Leslie Lambert, Windsor and Hampden avenues; Mr. Harry B. Well, 511 Essex avenue.

On the south side—Mr. Jacob K. Lessey, 207 Merion avenue.

These meetings will commence at 7:30 P. M., and from the interest that is being shown toward the coming evangelistic services, it is expected that the cottage prayer meetings will enjoy a large attendance. Choose the meeting nearest your home.

The evangelistic services are to begin on Tuesday evening, March 15th, and will continue each evening, except Saturday evenings, until Easter Sunday.

A. P. Bishop, D. D., will conduct the evangelistic meetings, and from what we are told by other communities who have heard Dr. Bishop, his meetings will greatly benefit the spiritual welfare of Narberth.

The Literature Class

The Literature Class on Monday morning learned "What the Public Wants" from its authors in an article read on that subject. "Adventures and Enthusiasm" was continued. "The Newness of the Old," "Aunts," "The Sufferer," "Punctuality" and "Little Miss Banks" were read and found to be very entertaining.

It was most interesting to learn that a poem, entitled "May Jones Takes the Air," which one of the members brought to a previous meeting, because of its unusual style, has since been published as being one of two poems to take a national prize. The poem is a satire on the world of today and composed by Roy Helton. The morning closed with two sonnets from John Massfield on "Growing Old," "Main Street," by Lewis Sinclair, will be discussed at one of the March meetings.

love of the beautiful down through the Chinese, Japanese, Greeks, Renaissance and French to the present.

Many practical suggestions were given, and she explained that in furnishing a room three things to be considered were: First, function; second, color; third, arrangement.

Under the first we are not to consider only the use, but also the person to occupy it.

In explaining the color scheme, and this seems to play an important part on the nerves and health of occupants, we must consider the location of the room, as north rooms require colors that introduce light and warmth, while rooms facing the south must be treated differently. Under the proper conditions many colors may be blended for the desired effect.

The third consideration was the arrangement of the furniture. Overcrowding was to be avoided, and the size of furniture and pictures in comparison to the size of the room was dwelt upon.

The brain unconsciously demands a balance, so unless the furniture establishes a balance the room is not restful for the occupants.

An interesting part of the talk was the decoration of a farm house in Canada, at a very small cost, in which was shown how by simply using color, the size and atmosphere of this house was completely changed.

After the talk, Miss Dowie graciously solved some of the personal problems of the members.

A reading, "Her First Appearance," by Richard Harding Davis, was given by Mrs. George Merritt Davis, one of the club members.

After the usual tea and social hour the meeting closed.

JUNIOR DANCE NEXT SATURDAY NIGHT.

If you have been reading this paper you know about the dance to be given under the auspices of the Junior Department of the Woman's Community Club. This is the first effort the girls have made to raise money, and they deserve the support of all the dancers in Narberth who are interested in young girls making a good thing grow.

The date is March 5th. That is next Saturday night at 8 o'clock, in Elm Hall. The tickets are $1.50 a couple.

NARBERTH CHORAL SOCIETY.

to like it. We'll announce what it is a little later.

If a singer comes to our rehearsals, not especially keyed up, or in a frame of mind to work—well, after following the active baton of our director for a few minutes he'll be conscious of only one aim in life—to follow that piece of ebony to the death and work like the mischief to please the power behind it. Only thusly can we describe the magnetic animated personality of our director.

All singers not already members of the Choral must make application for membership not later than the first Monday in March, as after that date the chorus membership will probably be closed for the spring concert. Application may be made to any of the above mentioned Active Membership Committee, or to Prof. C. C. Nice, Narberth 1608.

The Choral Society is made up, for the larger part, of solo quality voices, and professional soloists should feel especially interested in this Choral, as it is the intention of Prof. Nice to use only members of the chorus for solo parts in all concerts, and not to bring in outside talent.

If you had witnessed the manner in which the chorus handled the first rehearsal, you (being a music lover) would have been "delighted" and would have felt that it presaged many future musical treats for our town.

Rehearsals will be held every Monday evening at 8 o'clock sharp, and at the School Auditorium, Essex and Sabine avenues, this coming Monday evening. The question of holding all rehearsals in the School Auditorium is being taken up with the School Board, and it is hoped can be so arranged. A decision on the matter will probably be given out at next Monday's rehearsal.

which two dollars per month is payable. All shares mature when they reach a value of $200, so that the two dollar per month shares will appeal to those who would like to have their money available in a shorter time than the Long Term shares provide.

Become an investor at the meeting of the Narberth Building and Loan Association to be held in Elm Hall, Thursday evening, March 3rd, from seven until nine, by subscribing for as many shares as your circumstances will warrant. On the Long Term shares the payment is one dollar per month, and on the Short Term shares two dollars per month. When the payments and earnings reach $200 per share you receive that amount.

If you should decide to take out five shares in the Short Term Series your first payment would be five times two dollars, plus twenty-five cents a share entrance fee, or $11.25, and thereafter the payments would be made monthly at ten dollars each time. If you should want the Long Term and decided to save ten dollars a month, you would take out ten shares at one dollar, plus twenty-five cents a share entrance fee, or your first payment would be $11.25, and each month thereafter ten dollars.

The earnings will be at the same rate for both Long and Short Term Series, and when the earnings and dues paid in amount to two hundred dollars a share the stock will mature.

Why not become a partner in a seasoned association, managed by men you know and the earnings come from loans on properties which you can see right here in Narberth? Your investment will be safe and sound, and the rate of profit much higher than can be obtained from any venture having the same elements of security.

The new organization will be submitted to the Association in a special business meeting which will be called in the early part of April. Each member will receive a letter from the Executive Board during March, outlining the changes, and giving the exact date of the meeting.

Because of the radical nature of some of the changes, and the promise of future activity, it is felt that this will be the largest meeting ever held by the Association. It is certain, at least, that every member interested will be there to help with the reorganization, and to have a hand in the new activities.

Remember the dance to be given by the Junior Community Club on March 5 in Elm Hall. The tickets to be $1.50 a couple.

Have you your tickets for the big Tennis Show next Thursday and Friday nights at Elm Hall? You can get them from any member of the Tennis Association or at Howard's Drug Store.

Have you got one? What, Not yet? Well, then hurry to the nearest "Junior" and ask for one "good-for-two" ticket to the best dance Narberth has ever attempted. Price, $1.50 per couple. Place, Elm Hall, and date, March 5th. We don't want you to be disappointed, so we warn you—they are going, going, going—and will soon be gone!

The Women's Auxiliary of the Har-old D. Speakman Post, 356, of the American Legion of Narberth, will give the second of their series of card parties at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Howes, 313 Woodside avenue, on Monday afternoon, February 28th, from 2 until 4:30. Bridge and 500. Admission, 25 cents. The Auxiliary will give a card party every Monday afternoon. Watch for the announcement in Our Town when they will be held. You and your friends are invited.

Post 21, G. A. R., of West Philadelphia, of which Mr. G. W. Fraley is a member, was entertained by a delightful program of Narberth folks. The Westminster Circle gave two most attractive sketches which were enjoyed greatly by the old veterans. The boys' orchestra, including Merritt Davis, Lansford Knapp, Earl Miller, Rupert Riger and Crawford Yocum, as well as Mrs. Merritt Davis' recitations, added greatly to the cheer of the evening, and Mrs. Babb and Ann Barclay played a charming duet for two violins.

Ever hear of "Bruce K. Shallcross"? Well, he's some high class promoter, all right, all right. Go get acquainted with him at Elm Hall next Thursday or Friday night.

THREE NEW TEACHERS.

ELECTED BY LOWER MERION BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The February meeting of the Lower Merion School Board was held on Wednesday evening. The reports of the standing committees were read by Secretary William J. Byrnes, Jr., and approved.

The meeting had been postponed from last week, owing to the State Convention at Harrisburg, which was attended by Directors Byrnes, Hamilton and Yocum and Superintendent Downs.

Miss Ann M. Howard, graduate of the Cheney Normal School of Washington State, was elected a teacher for the fifth grade at Bryn Mawr.

Miss Edna Adams, graduate of the Lock Haven Normal School, was elected a teacher for an extra class in the Cynwyd school.

Amber Phwing, graduate of the Valparaiso University, was elected a teacher for a special class in the Ardmore school.

The new addition to the Cynwyd school will be ready for occupancy about the middle of March.

The specifications for the proposed addition to the Bryn Mawr school were carefully considered and a number of modifications were suggested.

Superintendent Downs was authorized to attend the National Superintendents' Convention, to be held in Atlantic City next month.
